

Sustainable Sweden Tour – May 2024

Pricing & Payment:

Important Notes and Instructions: Following are important instructions and details about the prices and payments for the Sustainable Sweden Tour --- May 2024. Please read carefully.

Prices: The prices below are expressed in Swedish Kronor in amounts equivalent to the originally posted price that was expressed in USD. This is by necessity for our payment processing. The prices do not include the international travel flights from your home to Sweden and back.

Swedish VAT: Please note the prices below do include a Swedish VAT, which is a mandatory tax that must be paid upfront.

Payment: At this time, we require full payment upfront for each participant to formally register and secure your place on the tour. The deadline for this payment is April 5th; please complete your registration by making the full payment as soon as possible. In the unlikely event the tour is cancelled or postponed due to an insufficient number of registrations, we will notify everyone who has registered, and a full refund will be granted.

Tour Options and Pricing: As listed here, you can pay and register for the Full Tour which includes Northern & Southern travel and study visits, or you can choose to pay to register for the Northern Tour Only or the Southern Tour Only.
